

Cash Flow Diagram: How Cash Movement Is Captured Across the Enterprise

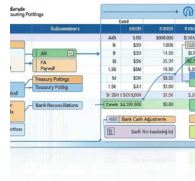

1. Operational Source System

Billing & AR: customer receipts
AP & Procurement: vendor payments
Payroll: wages, taxes, benefits
POS/e-commerce: immediate cash

2. Treasury, Capital Projects & Asset Systems

Capital project & fixed assets: capex, asset sales
Treasury Management: borrowings, repayments, interest
Equity Systems: dividends, share issuance/buybacks
Bank Connectivity: bank statements, cash positions

3. ERP General Ledger

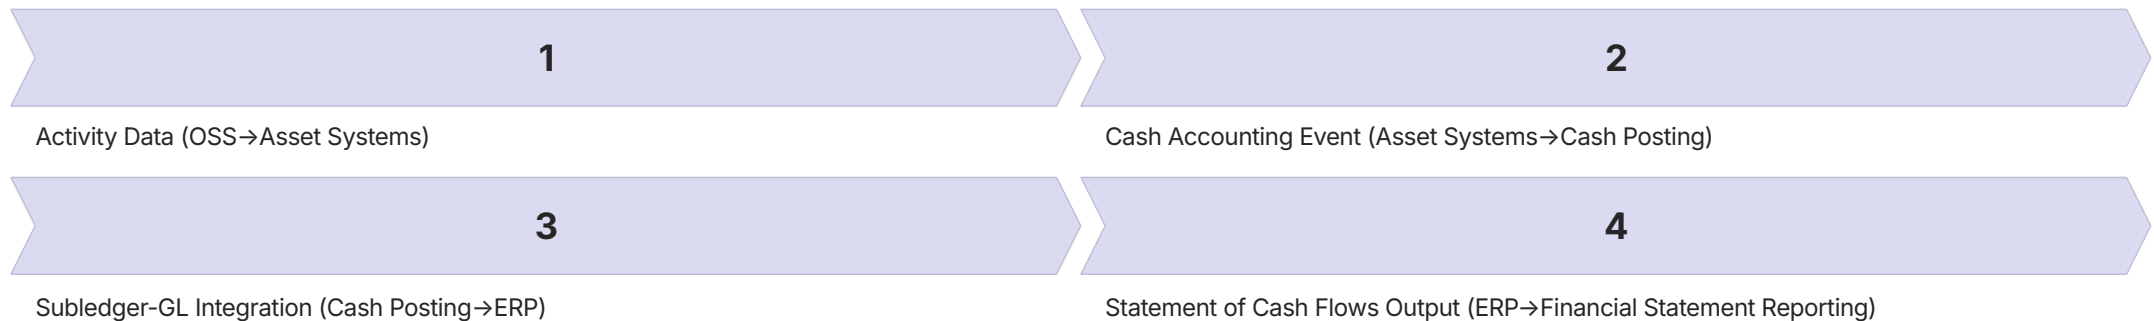

Cash accounting postings
Subledger-GL integration (AR, AP, FA, payroll)
Treasury postings & bank reconciliations
Non-cash adjustments (depreciation, amortization, accruals)

4. Statement of Cash Flows Output

Operating: customer receipts, vendor payments, payroll
Investing: capex, asset purchases/sales
Financing: debt activity, equity transactions
Net change in cash & ending cash balance

Represents Data Flow

Control + Data Quality Points

- Cash Impacting Activity
- Cash Movement Event
- GL Posting & Classification
- Cash Flow Reporting
- Financial Statement Reporting